¹ If either or both of these courses are taken as dual enrollment, you must also take ENG 210 (Advanced Composition) in order to qualify for guaranteed admission under the UVa-VCCS guaranteed admission agreement.

² Dual enrollment courses may not be used to fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences First Writing or Foreign Language requirements. SAT, AP, IB courses may qualify however. See <http://artsandsciences.virginia.edu/undergrad/requirements/index.html> for detailed information.

³ Many first-year foreign language courses at VCCS count as 5 credit hours per semester but only transfer to UVa as 4 credit hours each.

⁴ Transferable courses can be found using the Transfer Credit Evaluator at <http://saz-webdmz.eservices.virginia.edu/asequivs/>

⁵ Courses that fulfill the Non-Western Perspective requirement are so noted on the Transfer Credit Evaluator in footnote 4.

⁶ Literature courses may be in Classics, Comparative Literature, English Lit, or Foreign Lit. See the transfer credit evaluator in footnote 4 for equivalences.

* When students declare the major they will meet with the Drama Director of Undergraduate Programs to determine appropriate placement in acting courses at UVa. For more information, please visit the Drama website: <http://www.virginia.edu/drama/index.htm>
